Traditional Makeup Application: $125 for Bride, $100/face
Airbrushed Foundation Application: $150 for the Bride, $125/face
Trial Run Makeup Application: $65
Eyelash application: $15 flat fee whether you provide lashes or I do.
Eyes only: $30 flat fee.
Touch up rate: $100/hour

The fees allow for 30 minutes of time/face, and 45 minutes or so for the bride, which should be plenty... unless of course someone is extremely picky. If someone is skittish I always suggest a trial run to get the look figured out so the day of the event there are no hitches with choosing a lipstick etc. This also allows the client to purchase the lipstick to touch up with throughout out the event.

I airbrush foundation, blush and bronzer only; I do the eyes and lips using traditional makeup and brushes, primarily Bobbi Brown products. So, I really do a combination of traditional and airbrushed makeup. I like having access to all of the possible combinations of eye shadows and lip colors etc.

You'll have the lasting effects of the airbrushed foundation, and the flexibility of regular makeup for the rest of your face. Please note, the traditional makeup products that I use are long lasting.
